"Learn of me, and listen to my words; walk in the meekness of my Spirit, and you shall have peace in me." D&C 19:23

Dear Garden Park Ward,

In a breakfast conversation this week with several ward members, we got to talking about Jesus's commandment to love everyone, including our enemies. "Ye have heard that it has been said, 'Thou shall love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy.' But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven." What a radical concept that must have been when he taught it, and it remains pretty radical today. How can you love everyone when most people are so hard to love?

Martin Luther King taught, "Certainly these are great words, words lifted to cosmic proportions. And over the centuries, many persons have argued that this is an extremely difficult command. Many would go so far as to say that it just isn't possible to move out into the actual practice of this glorious command. They would go on to say that this is just additional proof that Jesus was an impractical idealist who never quite came down to earth. So the arguments abound. But far from being an impractical idealist, Jesus has become the practical realist. The words of this text glitter in our eyes with a new urgency. Far from being the pious injunction of a utopian dreamer, this command is an absolute necessity for the survival of our civilization. Yes, it is love that will save our world and our civilization, love even for enemies."

During the breakfast conversation referenced above, we also talked about a fascinating social experiment conducted by psychologist Arthur Aron, in which he showed that perfect strangers could rapidly develop deep and lasting love for each other by asking and answering 36 questions. The questions work because they encourage sincere sharing of our beliefs and vulnerabilities. The study authors write, "One key pattern associated with the development of a close relationship among peers is sustained, escalating, reciprocal, personal self-disclosure." When we actually get to know people at more than a superficial level and see their vulnerabilities, it's hard not to see them in a different light and have newfound affection for them.

Sometimes, members of our family can be the hardest to love. This week, I found myself in a long conversation about vaccines with two family members who have different views than my own. Over the past year, I've felt distant from them. But it was amazing to me how a single conversation based on trying to really understand each other was able to bridge that distance. I don't think any of us changed our minds much, but through 'reciprocal, personal self-disclosure,' I think we all came to appreciate and love each other more.

Returning to the sermon of MLK: "So this morning, as I look into your eyes... I say to you, 'I love you. I would rather die than hate you.' And I'm foolish enough to believe that through the power of this love somewhere, men of the most recalcitrant bent will be transformed. And then we will be in God's kingdom. We will be able to matriculate into the university of eternal life because we had the power to love our enemies, to bless those persons that cursed us, to even decide to be good to those persons who hated us, and we even prayed for those persons who despitefully used us."

Wishing you a month full of happiness, and perhaps even some newfound understanding and love for someone who is difficult to love.

Warmly,
Randy Peterson and the Garden Park Ward Bishopric

First Presidency Message on Covid-19

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Official Church Announcements

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We find ourselves fighting a war against the ravages of COVID-19 and its variants, an unrelenting pandemic. We want to do all we can to limit the spread of these viruses. We know that protection from the diseases they cause can only be achieved by immunizing a very high percentage of the population.

To limit exposure to these viruses, we urge the use of face masks in public meetings whenever social distancing is not possible. To provide personal protection from such severe infections, we urge individuals to be vaccinated. Available vaccines have proven to be both safe and effective.

We can win this war if everyone will follow the wise and thoughtful recommendations of medical experts and government leaders. Please know of our sincere love and great concern for all of God's children.

Relief Society

Kathy Campbell is getting settled in their new home in Burley ID but is homesick for Garden Park Ward! Please feel free to drop her a note and keep in touch! Their new address is 1833 Grandview Lane, Burley, ID 83318 .

During the pandemic, I got into the bad habit of watching TV every night. After dealing with the pandemic, politics, and social unrest, I couldn't wait to escape into some kind of entertainment & distraction in our dark basement. Thanks to live streaming and a myriad of networks, we watched some important and informative, fun and entertaining shows. But recently, I have realized that I have been watching TV, instead of reading, writing, and reaching out.

I have been discovering some excellent reading resources from our fellow ward members; for example, in a testimony meeting, Roger Thompson recommended Faith Is Not Blind; Catherine Thorpe talked about how inspired she had been by The Chosen; and Diane Etherington referenced several books from her lesson, including Restoration which was mentioned again by Judianne in last week's Sunday school class. Amy shared a remarkable podcast with me, "All In". These books & DVDs are available in our new loaning library in the Relief Society room on the table on the west side. You are welcome to borrow from or donate to the library.

For our first post-Covid activity, we would like to meet for a book club, on Wednesday, September 1st at 7pm. Please come prepared to...

- Review a great book you have recently read
- Use this as an excuse to read something you have wanted to read and share with us
- Grab a book from our little library
- Or just come and enjoy some book reviews

(Books need not be church books, just books that have inspired you. President Kimball was inspired by Les Miserables and spoke about it.)

A warm welcome home to our beloved Gallis! Lark is one of the precious and few current members who grew up in this ward (along with Ralph, Bishop Rick, Lois, and Sheila). Those of you who attended the record-breaking Sacrament Meeting heard their sound, strong testimonies, capacity to love, good humor, and story-telling skills. We are fortunate to have booked Lark to teach Relief Society on August 22nd before she is whisked away by the big church for another adventure.

Relief Society

I'm excited to introduce our newest Relief Society teacher, Kelly Morgan Watson. She was raised in California and lived next-door to a great church member, whose grandchildren visited often. Kelly played with the kids and was annoyed when they couldn't swim on Sundays. She was reintroduced to the church as a college student when a friend invited her to go swing dancing at a stake house. Mistaking the word 'stake' for 'steak', she dressed up to the nines and readied her appetite for a delicious dinner. She had a lovely evening, in spite of the miscommunication.

Later, she met her husband in law school in Phoenix and researched the church more seriously. Kelly has a degree in Philosophy & Law and works full-time for a real estate company. She is the mother of two cute girls, Savanna (5) & Evie (2). Kelly loves her family, her work, crafts, food and Gone With The Wind (perhaps another book for your consideration). She has amazing capacity and energy. We are going to love her perspective & lessons.

Women's Singing Opportunity

Roger Thompson has invited the sisters to sing a musical number on October 17th in Sacrament Meeting. Please contact him (385.226.3317) or me (801.971.1504) if you're interested in participating.

Halloween Open House

We are hoping that we can host a Halloween open house at the carriage house again this year, but Covid has more power than we do (even when we are witches). We will keep you posted.

Floral Arranging & Decorations

Our November activity will be floral arranging and decorating ideas for Thanksgiving, tentatively on November 23rd.

Randy & Ronalee Baker, Carolyn Sherman, and Greg & Ann Robison are returning to their assignments at the VA ward. We have been blessed by their testimonies & camaraderie and we will miss seeing them each week. Thankfully they are not moving out of the ward...just yet.

Love to you all,
Kathy & the Relief Society Presidency
