"Learn of me, and listen to my words; walk in the meekness of my Spirit, and you shall have peace in me." D&C 19:23

Brothers and Sisters,

This morning I saw an Instagram post on a church feed and just wanted to share the simple but powerful message.

Mosiah 2:17: "And behold, I tell you these things that ye may learn wisdom; that ye may learn that when ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God."

When was the last time you served someone?

Relief Society

"Brothers and sisters not throwing stones is the first step in treating others with compassion. The second step is to try and catch the stones thrown by others" -Elder Renlund

I have been thinking so much about this excerpt from Elder Renlund's April general conference talk.

I have asked myself, am I actively trying to catch the stones thrown by others? What does that mean?

I came across an Instagram post the other day that said something to the effect of -when Jesus said love your neighbor he knew your neighbor would act, believe, look and love differently than you. It's kind of the whole point.

I am so grateful to be a part of an organization that promotes love. I always want to be a person who focuses on loving those around me regardless of how their beliefs or decisions differ from mine. I also want to work on being a person who catches the stones, which I have come to believe means using my privilege to stand up with others and doing my part to stop the judgments and hate of others in their track before they reach their intended victim.

In his talk Elder Renlund adds "We will be judged not so much by what we say but by how we treat the vulnerable and disadvantaged. As Latter-day Saints, we seek to follow the Savior's example, to go about doing good. We demonstrate our love for our neighbor by working to ensure the dignity of all Heavenly Father's children"

Wow, What a beautiful work we have ahead of us if we listen to these words and demonstrate our love for our neighbors by working to ensure their dignity.

I hope you all have wonderful week. Please reach out if we can help in any way.
